The Garden Corner

Home Grown Sweet Corn Now on Local Markets

By Chris Doll Area Horticulturist

Commercial growers in the American Bottoms and many home gardeners are now enjoying early maturing sweet corn. This is the result of early planting and an early variety.

The main early commercial varieties are Spring Gold, Gold Rush, Earlibelle and Northern Belle. Gold Cup and Gold Winner are main-crop 80-day selections that will be ready next week.

Home gardeners like Spring Gold, Golden Beauty, Barbecue, Gold Cup, Golden Cross, Bantam, and many others. Early fine quality eating can be found in Seneca Chief, Gold Queen and Silver Queen. Super Sweet is a sweet-sweet corn that many people prefer but it is more difficult to grow.

Sweet corn is best for eating when cooked as soon as possible after harvesting. If cooking is delayed, keep the corn cool or refrigerated for best quality.

Raspberry Clean Up

Raspberry harvest is now finished for 1970 and it's time for the cleanup of old canes. By pruning out the old fruiting canes and burning them, a lot of anthracnose infections are destroyed. This reduces the disease potential for next year and also makes spraying much easier this year.

When the clean-up is completed, spray the planting with ferbam for disease control and add malathion if any insects are present.

GC Man in Two National July Fourth Programs

Rev. David T. Richardson of the Third Baptist Church, Granite City, will appear on national television with Billy Graham and Bob Hope in two hour-long Independence Day telecasts from Washington, D. C., Saturday.

Music director and assistant pastor of the local church, and director of The Windows folk music group, Rev. Richardson is a member of the Centurymen, 100-voice men's choir sponsored by the Southern Baptists' Radio and Television Commission.

The Centurymen, from 22 states, meet twice a year at Fort Worth, Tex.

The two "Honor America Day" programs will be carried by all three TV networks from 12 to 11 a.m. and from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Saturday, July 4.

Sing at Lincoln Memorial in the morning program, the group will sing from the steps of the Lincoln Memorial behind the stage on which Graham and other speakers will appear. The Centurymen will be the only featured group in the massed choir.

They are also scheduled for a solo performance in the evening telecast, starring Bob Hope.

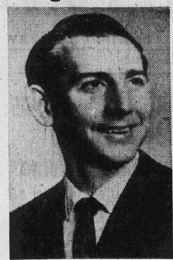

The group, consisting of ministers of music from Baptist churches, will be under the choral direction of James Woodward. Their arrangements are by Beryl Reed, musical director.

Purpose of the programs, according to the "Honor America Day" Committee, is to "rekindle the American spirit of patriotism."

Truman, LBJ, Mrs. Eisenhower Hope and Graham are co-chairmen of the committee, with Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower and former Presidents Truman and Johnson as honorary chairmen.

Miss Jo Ann Shelton of the Baptist Radio-TV Commission organized The Centurymen last year and now serves as their executive secretary. She worked with the "America Day" Committee and network officials on arrangements for the two patriotic telecasts.

The 100-voice group has issued two recordings, "Sounds of The Centurymen" and "The Centurymen in Concert."

Trial of Levee Board Trustees To Open Monday

Trial of four trustees of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district on charges of misconduct in office is scheduled to get under way in circuit court at Belleville Monday as the result of a surprise ruling Tuesday by Circuit Judge Alvin Maeyes.

The trial of Morris Campbell, board president, and George Duff, Lawrence T. Tolar and William "Mike" Ebersold had been set for July 16, but was advanced to Monday after Judge Maeyes ruled on an objection by State's Attorney Robert Rice of St. Clair county that attorneys representing the defendants also are attorneys for the levee district and that this situation represented a conflict of interest.

Judge Maeyes ruled merely that a canon of the Illinois Bar Association code of ethics holds that attorneys who have advised public bodies on transactions should not represent board members individually in any court cases stemming from those transactions. Therefore, Judge Maeyes said, the attorneys representing the levee trustees must judge for themselves whether to represent the trustees.

The four members of the levee board are named in an eight-count indictment charging the board awarded two major contracts for tunnel repairs on the riverfront without calling for bids and without requiring performance bonds. The indictment also charges that three levee district attorneys were paid more than the legally authorized $300 per year in fees and that the district hired more attorneys than allowed by law.

MORE ABOUT Festival

ers provide "living thunder" with electronic music, "accidental music," classical music, Indian music, jazz, folk, country and western, blues and rock. Based in San Francisco, they see themselves as "keepers of the flame" and their live performances are described as the ultimate in musical communication.

Following in rapid succession will be Violinist Pinchas Zukerman July 9-11, Cannonball Adderley July 10 and Henry Mancini July 12.

But next week's attractions will temporarily be placed in the back of music admirers' minds as they concentrate for now on the impressive list of concerts awaiting them this week.

Overnight Success

Tonight's and Saturday's guest artist, Andre Watts, was introduced to a nationwide television audience in February 1963 by Leonard Bernstein, who chose him as soloist for a New York Philharmonic young people's concert. Only 16 years old at the time, Watts was so spectacular that just 20 days later he substituted for ailing Glenn Gould at a regular Philharmonic subscription concert and won lavish praise.

Born in Germany, the son of an American GI and his Hungarian wife, Watts has toured the U.S. and Europe. He played at President Nixon's inaugural concert at Washington's Constitution Hall.

The program to be given here tonight and Saturday consists of the Handel-Harry "Royal Fireworks Music," Beethoven's "Piano Concerto No. 4 in G Major, Opus 58," Scriabin's "Piano of the Future" with color piano and lighting effects, the Debussy - Susskind "Prelude, Feu d'Artifice" and Stravinsky's "Fireworks Fantasy, Opus 4."

Skilled Balladists

On Friday evening the spotlight will focus on the New Christy Minstrels, two girls and six young men who present "exciting music in a fresh approach stressing preservation of American traditions."

Like their namesakes of a century ago, they combine the earthy simplicity of folk balladists with professional skill in playing musical instruments. The "pops" program Sunday, July 5, will be a Gershwin program featuring symphonic pictures from "Porgy and Bess," "An American in Paris" and "Rhapsody in Blue." Also included will be "Cuban Overture" and "Lullaby for Strings."

Statkin, the July 5 conductor, is assistant conductor of the St. Louis Symphony. Maestro Susskind is no stranger to the piano, although his usual role with the orchestra here has been on the podium.

Born in Prague, he began his musical career there as a concert pianist and has toured the world as both conductor and pianist.

Scotland, Australia, Canada and Sweden have directed the Scottish National Orchestra, Sadlers Wells Opera, Glyndebourne Opera and the Australian Broadcasting Commission and Victoria Symphony in Melbourne.

Setting for Concerts
The great white tent dominating the Mississippi River Festival site is 140x170 feet and 50 feet high.

It covers the stage and a custom-made acoustical shell and provides covered seating for 1875 people in canvas captain's chairs. The chairs are colored to correspond with ticket colors to facilitate seating. The tent is designed so that all but two of the main masts are eliminated by use of an exterior support system.

The stage is 108x43 feet, accommodating a 90-piece orchestra and a 40-piece chorus simultaneously. It can be modified to suit a chamber orchestra, quartet, small popular group or soloist.

For symphony concerts, acoustical reinforcement is not necessary inside the tent. Speakers are strategically placed throughout the lawn area to reinforce the sound where required.

Up to 10,000 persons gather on the grass of the natural amphitheater to see and hear the concert. Tent flaps normally are raised, affording a clear view of the stage for all; in adverse weather, the flaps are lowered but they are of a fully transparent material this year.

Ample Parking Space
Space is provided for parking about 3500 cars on the flat grass land east of the tent. For those parking on paved areas elsewhere on the campus, shuttle bus service is provided.

Food service facilities are available on the River Festival site to feed up to 1500 prior to a concert. There are two buffet and two snack bar lines. Picnic tables accommodate two, four or eight persons in a shaded area.

Buffet and snack bar service begins two hours before a concert and ends 15 minutes before the performance. On rock folk concert nights, only snack bar service is available.

Two substations serve hot and cold beverages. Also on sale are insect repellent, folding seats, umbrellas and raincoats.

Parking at the concert site costs 50 cents, with no charge made at other parking areas. Single concert tickets cost $3.50 for boxes, $4.50 for the three front sections, $5.50 for center rear sections, $2.50 for side rear sections, $2 for lawn seating and $1 for children under age 12 on the lawn.

Six concert and 12 concert season tickets provide reduced prices.

Fry Bats in Three, Scores; Hook Rally Defeats Quad-City

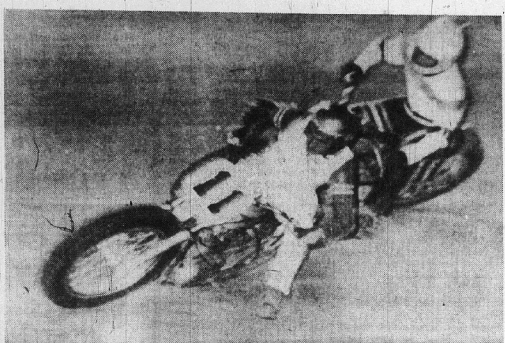

Hook's came from behind to beat Quad-City "A" 8-7, Tony & Joe's demolished Jacobs-meyer 14-2 and Hunter's Cove beat Midtown Pharmacy 14-1 in 35 & Over League softball at Wilson Park Monday.

Rich Fry sent home three runs with a double in the bottom of the last inning for Hook's to tie the contest 7-7. The buses had been loaded by Fred Cavins and Oren Harrison, who connected for singles, and Clayton Harrison, who walked then and otherwise batted three-for-three. George Gavlick singled Fry home with the winning run.

Tony & Joe's compiled a 187 hitting advantage, led by Ron Homyer's two singles and a triple and Root Gibson's three safeties. Tony & Joe's strung together 12 runs on 12 hits in the third inning, aided by Jacobsmeyer's one-inning loss of fielding composure; there were five errors during the defensive lapse.

Hunter's scored in all but the last inning, gaining a 21-15 hit advantage based on Chet Miller's four-for-five stick work, and two triples and three hits each from Dave Murphy, Francis Schwarzkopf and Harold Pratt.

Three Home Runs by Kevin Colligan in 24-4 Park Victory

Cardinal Tavern exploded to beat Hagop's Heroes 4-3 but topped hitting rations allowed Bricklayers to easily down Jets 12-2 and Jeanne's French Quarter to thump Eagles 24-4 in Western Classic softball at Worthen Park Monday.

Cardinal gained a 3-1 lead with Bill Apperson's fourth frame two-run home run which carried home Clarence Hand, who had singled. Hand scored the winning run "single handed" with a solo homer in the sixth.

Bricklayers took a decisive 8-6 lead with seven runs in the second. In that frame, they collected eight hits, including six for extra bases, one a homer by John Meszaros. Larry Pirtle homered for the Jets.

Kevin Colligan paced Jeanne's hitting barrage with three home runs and added a single in the last inning. He wasn't the only steady slugger for Jeanne's, which built a 24-4 hitting edge; Gary Kuntz went four-for-five, including three doubles, and Dale Culpen and Lloyd Allen each hit a home run among three safeties apiece.

USAC Midget Cars to Race Here on Sunday

U. S. Auto Club midget auto racers will arrive here Sunday for an evening of racing at the Tri-City Speedway.

Warm-up and practice laps begin at 6:30 p.m., qualifying trials are set for 7:30 p.m. and wheel-to-wheel competition is to start at 8:30 p.m.

Dave Strickland has moved to the top of the USAC midget point standings but his lead is very slight. Strickland has gathered 100.69 points.

Trailing him, in order, are: Jimmy Caruthers 99.85, Bob Tattersall 90.20, Morris Bettenhausen 71.30, Hank Butcher 65.45, Bill Engelhart 60.15, Bob Wenie 54.65, Jerry McClung 53.40, Roger West 53.40 and Larry Rice 44.75.

Before arriving here, the midgets will run Friday at Springfield, Ill., and Saturday at Lake Hill, Mo.

Beginning Friday, defending midget champ Bob Tattersall will rejoin the caravan of racers after missing the latest series of programs.

Six weeks ago, Tattersall burned his feet and has recently been hospitalized for skin grafts to the feet.

In addition to the regular midget car field, Bill Putebaugh, who ranks in the USAC top ten sprint car standings may be here. He is slated for a sprint race Saturday in Michigan; if all goes well there he could be here Sunday.

Lipscomb Delivers Clutch Softball Hit

Mercer Mortuary overran Metz 26-2, Northwestern Rentals nipped Midtown Pharmacy 5-4 and the Jets defeated B&A Bombers 12-6 in high school boys' softball at Wilson Park Tuesday.

Mercer added up 26 hits while Metz could garner only four in a game shortened to five innings by the 20-minute rule.

Mark Cooke and Mark Beasley paced the hitting attack going 5-for-5 at the plate. Mike Byrd gave a 4-for-5 batting performance and Ed Zaruba homered.

Midtown and Northwestern each punched a four-run inning. Bob Lipscomb singled home Ray Hoffman with the winning run in the sixth. Hoffman had singled and advanced on Greg Harris's walk and Terry Eddleman's sacrifice.

The Jets iced their game with a five-run fifth inning which included a two-run homer by Roger Short and a triple by Tony Kozma.

Hits by Cookley, Simpson Decisive

Mercer Ambulance edged W&W Confectionery in extra innings 6-5, Bob's Bait Shop shaded Miles Lab 4-3 and Jacobsmeyer beat Clark's Hardware 7-3 in Southern Classic softball Tuesday at Worthen Park.

Roger Cookley singled home Junior Wheatley, who had doubled in the second extra inning for Mercer. Gerry Davis of W&W earned game batsman honors with two singles and a triple.

Dan Holland homered to tie this contest 3-3. George Williams and Rich Simpson later produced back-to-back triples for Bob's victory run.

Jacobsmeyer hit in every inning and as the home team, did not need the bottom half of the last inning. The team gained a 12-9 hitting advantage.

DAVE STRICKLAND

Putebaugh, a resident of Roxana, has done well before behind the wheel of a midget. In the annual Houston Astro-dome race, he placed third last year.

Went, who was second at the Dome, and Ray Elliot, who was fourth, are certain to be here. A. J. Foyt won the annual premiere midget race.

Sutcliff, Double-O Stocks Friday

Stock hobby cars and super-modified sprint cars again Friday will alternate running on the Tri-City Speedway ovals for a dual program of auto racing. Time trials at 7:30 p.m. and racing is to start at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Until last week, it appeared that Wil Spalding was going to be invincible in sprint feature races for the rest of the season. Eight weeks had passed and he had not yet finished worse than first in a feature race.

The eight-week period had only included three nights of racing, but Spalding was winning no matter what the condition of the track.

He won on opening night, and in the second program he won in spite of the half-mile clay oval being a river of mud.

On the other occasion, lighting on the half-mile oval blacked out and the feature was run on the quarter-mile track. But Spalding still received the checkered flag first.

Twice, Dick Sutcliff strongly challenged Spalding, placing second each time. He did not race in the other program.

Tops 5-Year-Old Record
Last Friday, Sutcliff was back and broke Spalding's five-year-old track record while qualifying. In the feature, Sutcliff took the pole starting first and received the checkered flag a fraction of a second before Spalding.

During the feature, Spalding was always within reach of the win but could almost as easily have finished fourth, with Bill Utz and Jerry Blundy nipping at Spalding's tailpipe throughout the race.

Sutcliff won one of his shiny black sprint cars wearing No. 40. He has two sprint cars that appear to be identical. He requires two cars, as he races five nights a week regularly.

This week, Sutcliff raced at Erie, Pa., last night, is racing at Sharon, Pa., tonight, will be here Friday, visits Knoxville, La., every Saturday and returns to his home of Topeka, Kan., for Sunday racing.

Winning last week's feature for 170 Tri-City Speedway championship points, and winning the time trials and a heat event for 50 points apiece, Sutcliff fattened his previous total of 380 to a new tally of 650 points.

But Spalding and Utz weren't dragging their feet last week and they still stand first and second, respectively.

940 Points for Spalding
Spalding added 240 points to remain on top with 940. Utz collected 220 points for a total of 760.

Jim Jenkins was absent last week but retains fourth place with 380. Jimmy Moughan and Russ Hibbard are not far behind Jenkins.

On the other occasion, lighting on the half-mile oval blacked out and the feature was run on the quarter-mile track. But Spalding still received the checkered flag first.

Legion 9-8 Winner Over Mascoutah

Granite City edged Mascoutah 9-8 in an American Legion League encounter at Wilson Park Wednesday. In exhibition play, GC lost to the Alton Optimists 8-0 at Alton Tuesday.

The Legion Legionnaires are on the road today, facing Southwest St. Louis Kiwanis at 6 p.m. Legion North Division leader Collinsville will meet GC at Wilson Park at 6 p.m. Friday, with Jeff Boyles to get the starting assignment for the home team.

A doubleheader is in store for Sunday beginning at 1 p.m. at the S.W. campus diamond. GC will play Galesburg in the exhibition games.

Hagauer on Target
Ed Hagauer yesterday pitched in relief for Ron Simpson and for the team to an extra inning almost singlehandedly. Holding the mound for 2½ innings, Hagauer retired ten batters in a row.

The first eight he retired by himself, striking out seven and throwing out a batter who hit back to him. Hagauer gave up one hit during the eighth frame.

Mascoutah scored two runs in the first, one in the second, in the third and one in the fifth. Phil Berger and Bill Dunning connected for homers in the first and third.

Collecting 14 hits in all, GC scored twice in the first, once in the second and gained a momentary 8-4 lead with five runs in the fourth, including Rich Schardan's two-RBI single.

Parks' Hit Ends It
The winning run came in the eighth as Howard Bolton tripled and Jim Greenwald and Rich Schardan walked to load the bases. Sophomore Bill Parks drove in the game-winning run with a single.

Greenwald led the offense with three hits; Bolton, Gary Storch and Steve Burdge each had two safeties.

Victor Renzack took the pitching loss against Alton, which tallied all its runs in the first and second innings. Hagauer pitched relief, also, in the Tuesday game; he hurled four scoreless frames, allowing two hits.

Collinsville trounced East St. Louis 7-0 and Mascoutah was shamed by O'Fallon 4-3 in Legion action Tuesday.

At River Festival Friday Night

Christy Minstrels Patriots, Skilled Musicians, Singers

Determined not to be hidden behind the nationwide noises of tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. at the Mississippi River Festival at SIU-SW. The New Christy Minstrels have developed a musical program dedicated to a better understanding of the nation and its involvement in inner and foreign affairs. This singing group, comprising six men and two women, will open the folk-rock series

The first folk group to head-line at the famed Copacabana in New York, in April 1965, the New Christy Minstrels also "brought down the house" at the San Remo Festival in Europe and won the first and second prize. They brought their "Hootenanny" to television, nation a haven for freedom-loving peoples, a spokesman for the group comments.

The Minstrels pattern their own contemporary singing style after a company of pre-Civil War entertainers created by "Pop" Christy. The original group rolled around the country with corn-bob, slapstick comedy and folk songs and was credited with introducing Stephen Foster's greatest songs to the stage.

As the new Christy Minstrels gained experience and fame, they streamlined their act and perfected their own style. Their record albums are best sellers and their multi-lingual renditions are in demand in Europe and Asia. The Minstrels play en masse and each member has his own specialty. Pamela Bennett accompanies herself on the guitar and, for a change of pace, she plays the clarinet. For two years the first runner-up in the Miss California contest of 1964, she toured with The Young Americans and one year with The Kids Next Door.

Ramona Toney, former singer with the Tommy Dorsey band, also plays guitar and piano. She studied drama, modern dance and voice in New York.

String Guitar
Rick Hansen, baritone, plays the six and twelve-string guitar. While earning his bachelor degree at Bowling Green, he was soloist in the Collegiate Chorus.

Byron Walls, who has a master's degree in music, is a song writer and is co-author of a guitar instruction book. Gary Fishbaugh, cellist, majored in music in college. He was a regular on the CBS television show "Accents" in 1962. While in service, he was soloist with the Seventh Army Chorus, stationed in Heidelberg, Germany.

Bill Reynolds' first ambition was to be a disc jockey. His potential and talent were recognized with a scholarship at Pasadena Playhouse. He was considered for the title role in "The Graduate." The baritone also plays six-string guitar and shares duties on stage during the New Christy Minstrels shows.

TV Series Regular
Brian Culter got his start in business playing the part of a grasshopper as a child. He was a regular in the television series "Long Hot Summer," has made several appearances on "Rawhide" and "The Donna Reed Show" and was the voice-over the sound track of "Joe By Birdie."

Joe Travis started playing guitar when he was seven, harmonica soon after and bass fiddle at 14. After four years of operatic tenor study in college, he was signed by MGM as lead singer in a pop-folk group. The New Christy Minstrels were featured at last year's Mississippi River Festival and are being brought back to the local campus by popular demand.

Granite City Trust and Savings Bank and Earl Dotzauer of the First Granite City National Bank as co-treasurers. B. J. Hunter of Union Division of Miles Laboratories will provide a special booth where celebrities in the area of government, sports, radio and television, labor and industry will appear at various hours during the weekend to speak with local residents.

The co-chairmen, Konzen and Mathias, also will be in charge of special events and plan to arrange for an unusual and interesting object to be used as the center of attraction at the "fair." Tentative plans are to secure an exhibit from either McDonnell-Douglas Aircraft plant or perhaps from Scott AFB.

Konzen stressed that the fair's purpose is to provide novelty entertainment for people and to acquaint all residents with the services provided by the United Fund Agencies. He said "There will be no money taken from the campaign to present the fair. Everything will be on a volunteer basis and all prizes and gifts will be donated, thereby giving all proceeds to the campaign, which grossed more than $8000 last year."

Police Officer's Car Ransacked, Damaged

An auto, owned by Granite City Patrolman Albert Diak, was entered by thieves while the vehicle was parked at the curb in front of his home at 3104 J Avenue, the officer reported at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. Entry was gained by using a coat hanger to open the car door. The ignition switch mechanism was pulled out and damaged, wires to an air conditioning unit were forced loose and the glove compartment ransacked. All switches in the vehicle were damaged, but nothing appeared to have been taken, Diak said.

July 4th Fireworks Display Set for Miss. River Festival

The spectacular fireworks display long associated with the St. Louis riverfront shows moves to the 1970 Mississippi River Festival this year as producer Harry Fabricius illuminates the sky with tons of stellar aerial displays following the July 4 concert of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

For 30 minutes the Festival grounds behind the tent will be ablaze with a series of flashing salutes, sparkling waterfalls and spider web shells, and a waving American flag, and series of mortar blasts, ending in a fiery grand finale — a gigantic illuminated Mississippi River Festival symbol.

The holiday concert, conducted by Maestro Walter Susskind, also features a fireworks theme. Handel's Royal Fireworks Music will open the program and the orchestra will also be heard in Scriabin's "Poem of Fire" and Stravinsky's Fireworks Fantasy. The concert, which stars the brilliant young pianist Andre Watts, begins at 8:30 p.m. The fireworks display immediately follows the program.

Harry Fabricius, producer of the fireworks display, has been known to the area for decades. His father, grandfather and great-grandfather brought their holiday spectacles to St. Louis for many years, and it was the Fabricius family who created and staged the fireworks special for the opening of Eads Bridge in 1874.

Tickets for the Mississippi River Festival July fireworks spectacular and concert are priced at $2.50, $3.50, $4.50 and $5.50. Lawn seating is available for $2 for adults and $1 for children. A Mississippi River box office is located in the Reese Tri-Cor Pharmacy across from St. Elizabeth Hospital at 21st street and Madison avenue.

Immunization Clinic Postponed One Week

The immunization clinic, held on the first Saturday of each month at the Tri-Cor Medical Building, will not operate this Saturday due to the Fourth of July holiday.

The clinic will be conducted on Saturday, July 11, from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the Tri-Cor building, according to an announcement made by Ted Eller, assistant administrator of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

1st Music under Stars Attracts 125 Persons

About 125 persons attended the first "Music Under the Stars" concert of the 1970 season at Wilson Park rink pavilion Tuesday evening. Warm temperatures which remained above the 80-degree mark for most of the evening were believed responsible for a smaller audience than in recent years.

Raymond Voorhees, program director said Tuesday's audience was "highly appreciative of the guest artists and their talents." The initial show's theme was "Talent Living and Working in Our Community."

Five artists and the Madrigal Singers presented a diverse program of music.

Among the numbers heard were "O Mio Bambino Caro" by Puccini, performed by Mrs. June Nightwine Branding, lyrics soprano; "La Regatta Veneziana" by Rossini, sung by Mrs. Shirley Voorhees, who is studying at the SIU-SW campus park district.

for a bachelor of music degree. "Aufschwung" by Robert Schumann, performed by Ron Matson, pianist, a recent graduate of Granite City high school who presently is studying under Renato Preziosi and will continue his education this fall at an Ohio college; "Toccata" by Khachaturian, played by Mrs. Kathy French; and "D. Provenz il Mar," by Giuseppe Verdi, sang by Voorhees.

The Madrigals sang the "Aria" and "Bourree for Bach" in the style of the "Swing Singers." Three additional performers scheduled to take part in the "Music Under the Stars" opening concert were detained due to emergencies, Voorhees said.

The next presentation on a "patriotic theme," will be performed Tuesday, July 14, at the pavilion. The free concerts are sponsored by the Granite City park district.

Joint Installation for GC Jaycees-Jayceettes

Climaxing a hectic schedule of activity which involved many local delegates attending the U. S. Jaycees' national convention and 50th anniversary celebration last week in St. Louis, and sponsorship of the Miss Granite City Pageant, the local Jaycee chapter and Jayceettes conducted their joint installation dinner meeting at the Flaming Pit restaurant, Edwardsville.

Awards for outstanding contribution to the two organizations were presented by Stanley Noe and Mrs. Janet Partney, retiring presidents of the Granite City Jaycees and Jayceettes.

Top executives of the two groups installed at the dinner party were David Partney as Jaycee president and Mrs. Teresa Harris as Jayceettes president. Both will head their organizations in 1970-71.

Among the evening's highlights was presentation of a honorary membership and plaque to Ray Schindewolf of Troy, a former Granite City resident, who served as 1969-70 National Jaycee director for Illinois.

Schindewolf, who conducted the installation ceremony, was cited for his assistance to local Jaycees over the past several years. He is a past state vice-president and former president of the Troy Jaycees.

Other award winners were Al Delany, named "Jaycee of the Month for June" for his efforts as chairman of the recent "Homecoming Celebration" and also chairman of state parties night at the U. S. Jaycees convention for the state of Illinois.

The "Internal Committee of the Year" award went to Larry Patton for conducting a recruitment campaign; "External Committee of the Year" award was presented to Richard Dawdy, Boy Scout President, as co-chairman of the Illinois State Junior Sports Jamboree, held in Granite City August.

Named "Outstanding New Jaycee of the Year" was Bill Talley, who served as club director and as third vice-president during the latter part of 1969-70. "Outstanding Old Jaycee" was Stan Brown.

Key Man Award was presented by Noe to Bob Bischoff, second vice-president, and special "Presidential Awards" were received by Gary Davis, Earl Warnhoff, Al Delany, Earl Parsons, Rich Dawdy, Bill Talley, Wayne Worthen, Dave Moser and Stan Brown.

New Jaycees officials installed with Partney for 1970-71, included:

MORE ABOUT Partney Says

the dispatchers. They have refused to approve the salary payments, and on Feb. 23 adopted an ordinance delegating authority to the police chief to name desk clerks from personnel of the police department, thus excluding civilians.

Mayor Partney contends the national trend is to hire civilian dispatchers "to relieve qualified policemen for police duties."

He pointed out that on June 4, a ruling was handed down in the small claims court at Edwardsville that the mayor had authority to name police dispatchers and that Mrs. Hall should be paid $1000 and Mrs. Buttry $982 in back pay.

Council Plans Fight

The council continued to refuse to pay the women and last week hired William Schooley, township attorney, to represent the council and file an appeal.

"His pay will be $35 an hour. Maybe I'd better hire an attorney, too," Partney commented.

While the mayor claims a victory with the small claims court ruling, the council also points to victory with the June 17 denial in the circuit court of a motion to dismiss a suit filed by the police department union for removal of the women dispatchers.

Alderman Moerlein, who twice each month has made the motion that the women not be paid, called for hiring an "outside attorney" last week, claiming there was a conflict of interest on the part of City Atty. Leon Scroggins and Assistant City Atty. Harry Hartman, who are appointed by Mayor Partney.

Prior to being named dispatchers, Mrs. Hall was the city hall switchboard operator and Mrs. Buttry was a secretary in the police department detective bureau. The switchboard was closed down on Feb. 1.

590 Local Youths In Draft Lottery

An estimated 590 Quad-City youths were involved in yesterday's draft lottery for 19-year-olds to be inducted for the Armed Forces in 1971.

The national lottery was conducted in Washington, and the first to be called for service are youths who were born on July 9, 1951. The number two spot went to those born Christmas Eve, and No. 3 went to those youths born July 7, 1951.

Last place, No. 365 is for those youths born July 7, 1951. Men whose draft numbers were drawn last December were not involved in yesterday's lottery. They keep those numbers permanently.

Youths remain eligible for the draft until they are 26 in the event prime groups are exhausted. Each year, a new prime group is to be selected by lottery.

ISU Students to Receive Credit for Campaigning

Students at Illinois State University, Bloomington - Normal, will be able to engage in the 1970 political campaign and earn college credit for doing so. However, they must enroll in a new course and meet the course requirements to earn the credit.

The course, offered in the Department of Political Science, is "Field Experience in Campaigning 1970." It will continue for nine weeks from the beginning of the semester in September.

Introductory class sessions will be held, devoted to discussion and readings about election campaign strategies. Then students enrolled in the course will be expected to participate in the November election campaign. Written reports on their field experiences will be required.

Dr. Alice Ebel, professor of political science, is coordinator of the course. Others on the staff for the course are Dr. Walter S. G. Kohn, Dr. Frederick Roberts, Dr. Joel Verneer and Thomas Wilson, all members of the political science faculty.

Each participant in the course, Miss Ebel explained, will be responsible for arranging his own field experience in the campaign. The university will have no part in making these arrangements.

A student could choose to work for a particular candidate in either party, or he could engage in support or opposition to the new state constitution or for or against unification of Bloomington and Normal, which will be included locally on the November ballot.

Whatever the student's choice of campaign field experience, it will be his own, not that of

Catching Fireflies Can Be Profitable—Aids Science

Catching fireflies, commonly called "lightning bugs," can be a profitable business for clubs, organizations and school children during the summer months as well as aiding science, according to an announcement by the Sigma Firefly Scientists Club, a division of the Sigma Chemical Co. located in St. Louis.

The annual collection of fireflies by the Sigma Club is now in progress. It is estimated that five million fireflies are needed for medical and scientific research for the coming year.

Fireflies, it was explained, are a valuable source of rare chemicals known to research scientists and chemists as the substrate, "Luciferin," and the enzyme, "Luciferase." These chemicals are used in medical research for diagnostic purposes and the search for possible cures of human ailments, including cancer. They are also being used to detect the presence of life on other planets.

The fireflies are also useful in tackling problems of environment. An instrument has been developed which is expected to greatly improve the testing of water for bacterial contamination. Instead of 48 hours, as is generally required, it can be done in only four hours, thus reducing the risk of drinking contaminated water. The firefly makes this instrument possible.

For the young people who are interested in the project, they must first have a net to catch a large quantity of fireflies in a hurry. They are most easily caught just before dark in the evenings. As it gets darker, they fly higher and get out of reach.

The fireflies should be put in a jar and capped carefully so as not to mash the fireflies. The jar then should be placed in the refrigerator. After about 30 minutes or so in the refrigerator, the fireflies become dormant. Do not freeze them or put any grass or other debris in the container as fireflies do not eat anything, the club advises.

When about 500 fireflies have been collected, (in no instance should they be kept longer than five days, even though 500 have not been collected), tightly close the lid and place in shipping container and carton provided by the Sigma Club for shipment.

The special mailing containers, which preserve the fireflies long enough to get them to the laboratory, may be obtained by contacting the Sigma Firefly Scientists Club located at 3500 Delmar street, St. Louis, Mo. 63118 or by calling 314-771-5750.

The pay for the fireflies would be as follows: for 100 bugs in the first shipment, 30 cents for the first 100, $1.40 for the next 400, $2 for the next 500, and 4¢ cents for the last 10 bugs. The total shipment will be $3.74. A group should turn in their catch under one name to get the advantage of the highest rates of pay. Postage also will be paid by the club and included in your next check.

Philpott said that anyone who hires a maid, cleaning woman, caretaker, gardener or chauffeur is liable for Social Security taxes of cash wages of $30 or more in a quarter are paid to one employer. Money given to employees for carfare is to be counted in total wages paid. However, the value of meals is not included.

Failure to pay Social Security taxes can delay payment and decrease the amount a maid receives when she later applies for benefits.

Often when maids or other household employees apply for benefits, it comes to light that all Social Security taxes have not been paid.

IRS then has to secure delinquent returns, Forms 942, from the employers, sometimes covering several years with a substantial amount of taxes and penalties due.

No taxes are due on amounts paid to persons who are independent contractors and not household employees. Philpott said this exempts payments to painters, plumbers, repairmen, carpenters and others who provide household services as independent contractors.

Unique ROCKOME GARDENS "In the Heart of the Quaint Illinois Amish Country"

You, too, can take a ride into yesterday with the Amish chauffeur of this buggy passing between the huge rock portals that guard an entrance to Rockome Gardens. Once inside you'll be amazed at the endless and intricate rock work, all done by hand during the past quarter century. And many of the rock fences and designs frame magnificent flower gardens. On a leisurely stroll you can truly admire the freshness of the prairie, far from the noise, the odors, the dirt and the hustle of urban centers. The only motor at Rockome Gardens pulls the train which will take you for a ride along the river where Indians used to camp. Power for other rides is furnished by horses—like the buggy ride down the tranquil country lane. Another main feature of Rockome Gardens is the authentically furnished Amish home. You can actually see how these people who reject electricity and motor driven vehicles live.

Then there are the Indian Trading Post and Museum, the big Rock and Cren Shop, the Country School, the Blacksmith Shop, the Horse Barn and Deer Park. Of course, you'll want to visit the big gift shop and perhaps you'll want to take home some Dutch apple butter, made on the spot. Rockome Gardens is located five miles west of Arcola, Illinois, just off interstate highway 57.

Reservists Entitled To Time Off for Duty

Employers in Illinois and Indiana were reminded that Reservists and National Guardsmen are entitled to time off from their jobs to perform active duty for training, according to an announcement made today by Martin E. Mayernik, area administrator of the Labor-Management Administration, U.S. Department of Labor in Chicago.

Upon their return from training, reservists and national guardsmen have a legal right to be restored to their positions with the same seniority, status, pay and vacation rights as they previously held.

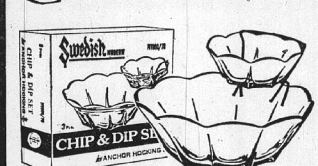

Reservists and guardsmen were cautioned by Mayernik to notify their employers before leaving for training and to report back to their jobs immediately upon completion of their tours, or they may forfeit their statutory reemployment protection.

MORE SHOULD JOIN IN HOLIDAY FLAG FLYING
To the Editor:
June 15 was Flag Day—a day set aside to display that most beautiful flag in the world, the flag of our country.

Besides Memorial Day, I believe Flag Day is one of the most important patriotic days of the year. It gives all Americans an opportunity to show love, respect and support of their country.

I wonder how many people took enough time to raise their flag in Granite City. Considering the size of our fair town, not many.

But that doesn't upset me as early as much as it should. Through our business district that day did.

I purposely went to see what I expected to be a beautiful display of red, white and blue. What I saw dismayed me.

The number of flags that were displayed on two hands. My question is, "Why?"

It is my opinion that the business leaders should set an example for everyone in Granite City.

Sure, Sunday is a day of rest. I realize it would have been an effort for these people to leave their homes "just" to come to their establishment to raise a flag.

But if the effort was so great, they could have hired someone to do it for them. It would have been very easy and I am sure they would have lost no time opening their doors on a Sunday if they could make a profit.

What is their excuse? What is the excuse of the citizen who didn't raise "Old Glory?"

I wonder if Granite City would receive another "All American City" award if the opportunity arose again. I don't think so.

Would we have been proud to count the flags displayed Flag Day with a stranger? I doubt it.

I would like to see a resurgence of patriotism in Granite City on days set aside for our flag to be flown—and I would also like to see a park in the heart of town, honoring our war veterans.

I believe at one time we had a park for that purpose, with names on plaques of those who died in defending our flag. Why isn't there one now? It is the least we could do for them.

Think of what I have said. Perhaps next year will be different.

"MINI" CONSTITUTION WOULD AID EFFICIENCY
To the Editor:
The Illinois Constitutional Convention sitting in Springfield has worked since last winter on a new constitution which would be as cumbersome as the interest-ridden and suspicion-laden document of some sixty years ago.

It should be possible for conscientious delegates of the experience ours have acquired in the past to prepare, in the remaining months scheduled for the proceedings, a flexible constitution that would strip all the state constitution of all its legal interpretations.

The familiarity and competence developed by our delegates with respect to state constitutional problems since the first of the year should now make it, for them, far more desirable and far easier than it would have been at the beginning of their deliberations to pare down our constitution so as to permit intelligent and efficient government in this state.

Such a contribution to responsible and responsible government could help persuade American citizens to take our traditionally useful "state sovereignty" more seriously than many are now inclined to do.

The government of the state of Illinois could be defined—in a state constitution—to be bare essentials—as power, not powers, not delegated exclusively to the federal government by the Constitution of the United States.

'Day of Deliverance' Brought Americans The Greatest of All Treasures—Liberty

It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore.

John Adams' view of Independence Day, which he termed "the great anniversary festival," reflected keen foresight of what he visualized has come to pass during the past two centuries: Fourth of July observances through the years have been large and inspiring. Even in the modern era of 1970, Americans still strive to commemorate the event as being arranged by public agencies and private organizations here and elsewhere.

The birthday of the United States of America—the Declaration of Independence was adopted by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776—truly does represent a day of deliverance, and not just for the millions of Americans who have been blessed by this nation's assurances of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Today the United States has become a beacon of freedom throughout the world and its example and assistance have enabled vast numbers of people to emerge from the darkness of tyranny into the bright light of democracy, with respect for the dignity of human life, fair play and self-determination.

It has become a popular pastime for some who are cynically inclined, revolutionary minded or pseudo-sophisticated to scoff at what has been accomplished. They equate temporary problems with permanent defects, concluding that the mechanism by which a better life has been achieved should be discarded. They are wrong, because progress can best be achieved by working within the system to improve conditions and to improve the system itself.

The status quo may be frustrating at times, but it, just like the weather, is sure to change. If Independence Day 1970, can renew belief in our nation as a viable way of jointly achieving individual aspirations, the holiday will have accomplished something significant, something needed at this time, the 194th milestone in our national history.

"This is my land—our land," a treasure so great that we must rise willingly and gladly to whatever tasks are required to protect and preserve it.

Fabled Camelot was a "brief, shining hour" of abundance and tranquility. America can be an unending garden of happiness and challenge and attainment, if citizens make it happen and continue to happen.

Flag Symbol of National Unity, America's Heritage of Liberty

The first amendment to the U. S. Constitution guarantees the youth the right to assemble peacefully and to petition for redress of any grievances, they may have. I would like to give Negroes their freedom, too, to break our laws or disrupt their lives or destroy property or disrupt our courts, or advocate assassination of those who disagree with them.

Citizens all have ideas for change, but we do not advocate violence to achieve those changes. We work to rear our families, to pay for our education, to earn enough to educate our children.

People are becoming more and more impatient with those who trample the flag. They are impatient with those who trample the flag. They are impatient with those who trample the flag.

We observe the Bill of Rights, for we know the opportunity to rise beyond one's surroundings; democracy the right to change the government.

These are words, but understanding and practicing them denotes the true patriot from the flag too much when this heritage is understood and lived.

The flag is a symbol of our national unity, our national conscience, our national dream. It does not symbolize a golden age in our history. It is not the sole possession of any interest group. It belongs to all of the people.

State Assembly Meeting in June Contrasted Sharply With the Productive April Session

Two legislative sessions in the same even-numbered year may have been too many, some members of the Illinois General Assembly believe following the late-June session. It accomplished little except to approve the 1970-71 salary payments which had failed to gain enactment at the April-May deliberations.

A new House move to raise legislative pay from $12,000 to $15,000 yearly was defeated by the Senate, along with a last-minute proposal giving raises to elected state officials and department heads. The effort to win general state funds to subsidize the Chicago Transit Authority failed and will have to be better thought out and substantiated if it is to get anywhere next year, when the regular January-June biennial meeting will be held by the legislature.

Only two minor measures recommended by Governor Ogilvie were approved—a $234,000 appropriation to continue the Illinois Budgetary Commission and a $59,000 allocation for the Legislative Audit Commission, an Assembly watchdog on state spending. His party, the Republicans, also won a place on the House majority, but with the November election drawing nearer, legislators were unwilling to put party allegiance ahead of their standing with voters. Among the changes in the plan to revise state laws to save 300 GOP patronage jobs in Cook county township tax collection offices.

To the idea of holding Assembly sessions every year still seems sound, with emphasis on budgeting in the years in which only relatively brief sessions occur. The Illinois Constitution specifies that the legislature meet in odd-numbered years to deal with not only revenue but the full range of state governmental issues.

However, a problem yet to be resolved in even-numbered years is that representatives not fully responsive to the public. All 59 state senators must run in November 1970 in order to remain in office. The term of 17 House members also expire, but 93 of them—under Illinois' unique cumulative voting system—have no ballot opposition in the general election. Probably not coincidentally, it was the Senate which most consistently exercised sound judgment at the capitol this spring.

Fortunately, although the two-week session was largely a series of tax-raising bills, the proudest recent months' deliberations proved to be productive, especially for this region.

Miss Dick Hoping to Become Fourth Local State Winner in 'Miss America' Pageant

We are glad we were not among the judges of the Miss Granite City competition. The assignment would have been difficult for us; any one of the eight contestants would have been an excellent choice.

Local residents look forward with pride and confidence to the Miss Illinois pageant July 20-25 at Aurora, where 19-year-old Ruth Ann Dick will represent the Quad-Cities in vying for a chance to take part in the 50th anniversary Miss America contest in September.

In addition to appearances in swimming and formal attire and evaluation of her intellect, charm and personality, the vivacious young brunette, a sophomore honor student at Southern Illinois University's Southwestern campus here, will present evidence of her vocal music ability. She also is an accomplished pianist, speaker, and dancer.

We wish the new Miss Granite City well and will not be surprised at all if she advances all the way to the national title. Trips to Atlantic City are the rewards of winners of the hereabouts. Granite City already has produced two holders of the Miss Illinois crown—and would you believe?—a Miss Missouri.

Life, and these rules must be observed. Our college youths want to be treated as adults, so they should behave as adults. They want respect, but respect is not demanded—it is earned.

They want our support. They must earn it, not by destroying, but by tearing the flag to pieces and burning it with garbage, not by destroying the ideals we have come to associate with the flag—all of our freedom, and the heritages we have undergone in its preservation.

We need a revival of the spirit which swept over that great senator who was the first to oppose slavery, Charles Sumner of Massachusetts. In 1857, after the Union had been preserved, he said in a spirit of solemnity: "There is the flag. He must be cold indeed, who can look upon its folds rippling in the breeze without feeling pride of country."

The man or woman who can look upon that flag in the breeze without pride, especially upon some holiday, or watch the flag flying at half-staff upon the passing of someone for whom it flies in tribute, must indeed be lacking in one of the greatest of the attributes which have made America the envy of the world.

I share the views of another great American, Theodore Roosevelt, who exactly 60 years ago said in his historic remarks declared: "We can have no fifty-fifty rule in this country. Either a man is an American and nothing else, or he is not an American at all."

We are also by blood and descent to most of the nations of Europe, but we are separate and apart. We are bound always to give our wholehearted and undivided loyalty to our own flag.

Real Estate, Personal Property Taxes Pose Thorny Problems for Writers of State Constitution

(Springfield Scene)

Following is a brief analysis of the language adopted by the convention so far:
Any tax on or measured by income shall be at a nonproportional rate. No more than one such tax may be levied by the state for purposes on individuals and on corporations.

The rate as to individual income shall not exceed 5% unless such excess rate is approved by a majority of the people voting in a referendum or by a vote of three-fifths of both houses of the General Assembly.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the General Assembly, in any law imposing a tax on or measured by income, may define the amount upon which such taxes are imposed or measured by reference to (1) any provision of the laws and regulations of the United States, as such laws may be or become effective at any time or from time to time; (2) any amount finally ascertained by the Internal Revenue Service for purposes of taxation by the United States.

This provides no limit on corporate income tax rates and removes any tie between corporate and individual rates. This section has been sent to the Style and Drafting Committee.

Taxes upon real property shall be levied uniformly by valuation which shall be ascertained in such manner as the General Assembly shall provide by law. Provided, that subject to such limitations as the General Assembly may hereafter prescribe by law, counties may classify real estate for purposes of taxation.

Any such classification shall be reasonable and assessments shall be uniform within each class. Real property used in agriculture shall be assessed at the same level of assessment as single-family residential real property.

In any county, the level of assessment or rate of taxation of the highest class shall not be more than two and one-half times the level of assessment or rate of taxation of the lowest class.

This is a new formalized classification of real estate throughout the state and, by the way, it provides for agricultural, cultural, single area business as the primary area for future development.

Any ad valorem personal property tax abolished on or before Jan. 1, 1975, shall not be reinstated thereafter.

On Jan. 1, 1979, the General Assembly shall abolish all ad valorem personal property taxes not previously abolished, and shall replace revenues lost, to local governmental units as a result of such abolition by levying or authorizing the levy of taxes other than on an ad valorem basis.

However, a minority report opposing the abolition of individual property tax immediately and corporate personal property tax by 1979 was adopted by a 35-45 vote.

Tax Returns Can Be Challenged During the Following Three Years
(Internal Revenue Service)

Q I just got my refund. Does that mean my return was okay?
A The fact that you have your refund means your return contained all the information required to process it.

Q I have a question about my return. You may be asked to verify the accuracy of an item on your return, but it is not IRS policy to hold out refunds until a decision on whether to examine a return is made.

As a rule, tax may be assessed anytime within three years from the date the return was due to be filed.

For this reason, keep your records on your 1969 tax return for at least three years. Records on stock purchases, property acquisitions and the like should be kept longer.

Q Shouldn't my employer reduce my withholding now that I've had my 65th birthday?
A You are entitled to an extra exemption for age which will reduce your tax withholding.

To make this change, fill out a new withholding certificate, Form W-4, and give it to your employer.

Even though you became 65 after the start of the tax year, you are entitled to the entire amount of the exemption allowed for age on your next tax return. Exemptions are not prorated.

Q Will profits from a sale of stock be taxed higher this year under the law?
A The alternative capital gains tax has been increased. It is now 28% on capital gains for a married person filing a separate return, capital gains will be taxed at the 28% alternative rate as they have in the past.

Gains over $50,000 will be taxed at 28% for 1970. In 1971, the alternative capital gains tax rate will go up to 28%.

Capital gains will be taxed at an effective maximum rate of 35% in 1972.

It's easy if you have the money. But who does these days? So you need a mortgage. And tight money has made mortgages hard to come by. But not give up. Mortgage money is available. At some lending institutions. Through pri-

JOHN MANGOFF

THERESA PLANITZ

2 MHS Students Selected For Two-Week Music Camp

Theresa Planitz and John Mangoff, who will begin their senior year at Madison high school in September, will participate in a two-week music camp on the campus of SIU-Carbondale July 5 to 18.

The "Music and Youth at Southern" program will feature such activities as band, chorus, orchestra, stage band, classes in music theory, music appreciation and individual lessons. The selection of students was based on musicianship and scholarship.

Miss Planitz is the daughter of Joseph A. Planitz of Garces Homes and is sponsored by the Madison Muevra Reading Club. She is the first chair flute in the senior high school band, treasurer of the National Honor Society Chapter, treasurer of the Junior Red Cross, a member of GAA, student council member, treasurer of the band and a pep club member.

Mangoff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Mangoff of 1025 Madison avenue. He is sponsored by the Madison Muevra Reading Club.

New Student Admissions at SIU Increasing

New student admissions for the summer and fall quarters at SIU-Carbondale campus are running slightly ahead of the same period a year ago, according to a report from acting chancellor Willis Malone. He said the registrar's office shows 2064 new student admissions for the summer quarter and 8921 for fall. Comparable figures are 1937 for summer and 7718 for fall in 1969.

Pre-registrations for fall were counted at 10,771, compared to 11,027 at the same period last year.

The registrar's office sent follow-up "intent" cards to 5590 freshmen applicants and 1115 graduate students. Confirmation, came back from 3765, while 1450 said they did not intend to register at SIU and another 1450 did not respond. These are being contacted again.

On the basis of the above figures, Malone said he expected a summer term enrollment "about the same" as the 10,685 for SIU at Carbondale last year.

Senior Scouts Close 1969-70 With Dinner

Senior Girl Scout Troop 1177 climaxed the 1969-70 Scout year with a dinner in Missouri last night. The scouts were accompanied by their advisor, Mrs. Joan Oram, and Mrs. Opal Davis, Mrs. Lois Hodge and Mrs. David Morgan.

The scouts enjoyed dinner at the Neale's Ark restaurant in St. Charles, and a surprise birthday celebration was held for Phyllis Barnes, who was presented a cake decorated in an ark theme and accented with miniature giraffes. Each of the guests was presented with one of the admissions. Participating were Misses Barnes, Patti Ahlers, Barbara Davis, Patti Dillender, Kathy Duke, Nancy Hodge, Janice O'Beare and Linda Gram.

Truck-Auto Collide

A flat-bed truck, owned by the Hammond, Ind., firm and operated by Norman Grindle of Middleton, Ohio, and an auto driven by Loretta J. Borowski, 212 Warren lane, Mitchell, collided at 20th and Nash streets at 10:15 p.m. Monday, when the truck made a right turn from Nash onto 20th street.

TRADITIONAL CEREMONY symbolizing the official beginning of the 1970 summer camping season. The Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council is observing its 50th anniversary and Henry D. Karandjeff (center), honored as "50-year scout," is shown untying a square knot as part of the opening ritual at Camp Sunnen, Potosi, Mo. At left is Council Scout Executive William Monical and at right is Council President Rollin Henn. Members of the current camp staff are in the background.

APPRECIATION PLAQUE being awarded to Henry D. Karandjeff at Camp Sunnen this week by Scout Ed Kennedy of Long Lake fire department Boy Scout Troop 23. Members of Troop 23 are watching the presentation along with Rollin Henn (right), president of the Cahokia Mound Council. Karandjeff, a member of the council executive board, has headed the committee preparing for acquisition of title to the council's summer camp, located in the Missouri Ozarks.

Variety of Experiences for Cadet Peters

One month ago James D. Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters of 3001 Fehling road, was inducted into the ROTC program. Cadet Peters served as an intern for Senator Smith (R-Ill.) prepare to introduce legislation in the Senate. He is one third of the way through a six-week ROTC Advanced Summer Camp at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Cadet Peters, a political science and history major at Westminster College at Fulton, Mo., will begin his senior year this September. This summer, he is undergoing the six weeks of active training that will lead to his being commissioned a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army upon graduation in April 1971.

The ROTC Advanced Summer Camp is designed to teach young college men to assume positions of leadership in the Army. Cadet Peters is no stranger to such a position.

In high school, he was a member of the National Honor Society, president of his senior class, president of the Masque and Gavel Club, and a participant in baseball, basketball and football.

At Westminster College, he earned letters in baseball during his first two years on campus, and also had time for Phi Alpha Theta, the national history fraternity, and for a stint as sports editor of the campus newspaper.

During the summer of 1969, Cadet Peters participated in the Experiment in International Living. He lived with a family in Graz, Austria, for four weeks, and toured with a group of other students in Czechoslovakia and Austria.

This year, Cadet Peters took advantage of Westminster College's Washington Semester, a program that runs from January through May in the nation's capital. While earning regular credit in political science, he met with some of Washington's best-known political figures to discuss current problems and to learn, first-hand, how the country is actually administered.

Among others, Cadet Peters interviewed Senator Mike Mansfield of Montana; Senator Gale McGee of Wyoming; Justice Tom Clark, and Virginia

Knauer, President Nixon's special counsel on consumer affairs. Later, as part of the program, Cadet Peters served as an intern for Senator Smith. During his four weeks in the senator's office, he wrote a speech for delivery at the senator's high school alma mater. He also wrote a speech for delivery on the Senate floor in introducing a bill which would provide for tax deductions for the parents of handicapped children. A tending committee hearings to gather information for the current course of instruction he is pursuing during the six-week period.

Not surprisingly, Cadet Peters arrived at Fort Riley with many preconceptions of what ROTC camp would be like — and found them all quickly dispelled.

For example, he said, "We expected physical harassment, but there is none. Instead, our instructors explain everything to us in terms of what we will have to do as officers. They address us firmly but politely, and we are expected to react accordingly."

Cadet Peters also commented that housing conditions and food are very good, and that accommodations are generally excellent. Fort Riley has complete facilities for recreation when ROTC cadets are not on duty. Swimming, golf, and tennis are all available. The post has also a well-stocked library, craft shops, movie theaters, an amateur drama group, and many other such facilities.

According to Cadet Peters, the first two weeks of training have been interesting and stimulating. He reports that he and his fellow cadets are especially looking forward to the two weeks of "tactics" they will begin in a few days. In this important part of the ROTC Camp, the cadets take turns acting as squad leader, platoon leader, and company commander. During these field problems, much of their classroom training comes into play.

After graduation from Westminster College next spring, Cadet Peters hopes to attend law school at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. If things go according to his plans, he will complete his three years of law school and then go on active duty with the Army.

Karandjeff Honored During Ceremonies at Camp Sunnen

Camp Sunnen, located near Potosi, Mo., officially opened the 1970 camp season this week, with 190 scouts and scouters attending June 28 ceremonies led by Henry D. Karandjeff. An extremely active scout for 50 years, Karandjeff also was presented with an engraved plaque by Tenderfoot Scout Edward Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kennedy, 3533 Lake street.

Scout Kennedy is a member of Boy Scout Troop 23, sponsored by the Long Lake fire department. The plaque reads as follows:

"Character — citizenship — physical fitness — a guardian of scouting. Henry D. Karandjeff, for his untiring effort in behalf of Camp Sunnen, Cahokia Mound Council, 1970."

Prior to the opening ceremonies, Karandjeff and special guests were taken on an inspection tour of the camp by Lieut. Bill Fox of Madison, vice-president of Explorer Post 104 and a member of the camp staff for 1970.

Untying the traditional square knot, Scout Karandjeff marked 50 years of scouting for this area's Boy Scouts. The Cahokia Mound Council was established in 1920 and Camp Sunnen was opened in 1953.

The first council camp was Camp Rankin, located near Reselle, Mo., opening prior to 1920 and operating until 1941, at which time Rankin was forced to close the camp due to the danger of a dam possibly breaking.

Between 1941 and 1953, when Camp Sunnen opened, scouts of this area camped with other councils. There also was some Cahokia Mound Council camping at Camp Cahokia near Litchfield.

700 Campers This Summer

The 1970 camping season at Camp Sunnen will provide over 700 scouts with the fun and adventure of scout camping; it was noted at this week's ceremonies.

Quadrants serving on the camp staff for 1970 are:

program trainee; and Bill Fox, field sports aide. Council President G. Rollin Henn and Mick Strange, a member of the Camp Sunnen staff in 1963, were special guests at the opening campfire. Phil Dixon, Illinois district scout executive, is the camp director for the second year at Sunnen. During his military training early in the scheduled season, Council Executive William Monical led the camping program at the Potosi campsite.

Union Urges Transit Plan For Existing RR Trackage

Plans to develop a rapid transit system for both the Illinois and Missouri sectors of the metropolitan area on existing railroad tracks were announced Tuesday by a railroad union which contends the program could make rapid transit a reality in the area within two years.

Ray Heape, international vice-president of the United Transportation Union, said the union also is considering plans to run high-speed train service between St. Louis and Chicago.

Heape said a rapid transit system could use existing stations, tunnels and bridges in East St. Louis and St. Louis to loop trains through the downtown area to the Illinois side over Eads bridge and the McKinley bridge.

New Exercise Series Planned on Channel 9

A zany new television exercise series promising to flatten pot bellies, sculpture thighs and rejuvenate work-weary aching backs, will be telecast at 7 p.m. Wednesdays beginning July 8 on Channel 9, when "Maggie and the Beautiful Machine" makes its debut.

Maggie is Maggie Lettvin, a tall, striking 43-year-old, whose own beautiful machine belies her 43 years, and the series' 13 programs offer exercises for people who work eight hours a day sitting in an office, people who drive instead of walk, people who have to stay home and clean the house, and people who walk instead of jog. Most importantly, Maggie lets people progress at their own rate—without overexertion. The exercises are for people, not to surpass them.

A guide to exercises featured in the series, produced by Wgbb in Boston, is free to Channel 9 family members, and the enrollment fee and guide is $1 for individual members. Non-members may join, enroll and receive the guide for $1. Requests may be sent to: Ketc, 6906 Mulbrook blvd., St. Louis, Mo. 63120.

New Power Plant Used as Demand Breaks Record

Electricity from Illinois Power Company's new Baldwin power plant, now in its check-out period, helped meet the needs of IP customers when the demand for electricity over the IP system reached a new peak Tuesday.

As hot and humid weather moved into Illinois, fans and air-conditioners contributed to the record demand with a peak of 1,762,000 kilowatts set between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. June 30. This was 3.1% above the previous peak of 1,709,063 established July 17, 1969.

The kilowatt hour use was almost equal to the previous record use of 34,523,000 kilowatt hours on July 17, 1969.

The first 600,000-kilowatt unit at the new Baldwin plant, in Randolph county along the canalized Kaskaskia River, has been producing limited amounts of electricity at various times during the past month as it goes through final checks.

On Monday, generation at Baldwin reached 400,000 kilowatts. It was kept at that level during the night and on Tuesday reached 500,000 kilowatts.

Two-State Pool Electricity from all IP power plants—Baldwin, Wood River, Havana, Hennepin and Vermilion, near Danville—is added to the production of the Illinois-Missouri Power Pool made up of Illinois Power, Central Illinois Public Service Co. and Union Electric Co.

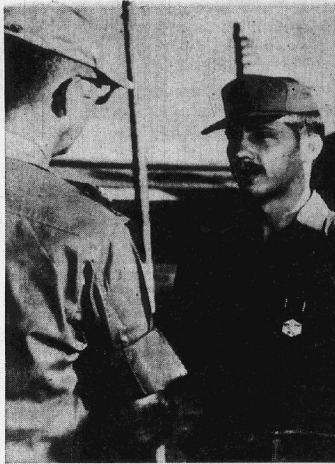

The pool was exporting electricity during the hot and humid weather to neighboring utilities.

Neighboring utilities were buying the electricity because of mechanical difficulties in generating units and, in some cases, because of their need for the additional power to replace electricity being exported to their neighbors, some of it on an emergency basis.

When Baldwin's 600,000-kilowatt unit is in full operation, it will increase IP's generating capacity more than 40% and bring the total capacity to more than two million kilowatts to serve more than 400,000 IP customers in one-fourth the land area of Illinois.

Work already has started on a second 600,000-kilowatt unit at Baldwin, to be in production in 1973.

Rotarians See 'Big Bird' Film

A film on the Big Bird 747 was shown to members of the Granite City Rotary Club at their Tuesday luncheon meeting by John Hughes, account executive with TWA in St. Louis.

Hughes said the public acceptance of the big plane has been enormous since its first flight on Feb. 25. He added the plane which is 2000 gallons less than it takes to fill the "Y" swimming pool.

Although the plane is much more quiet than other planes, it cannot be used in St. Louis as the runways are not strong enough, he explained. The plane is now being used in the larger cities in this country and in London. One flight has been made to St. Louis but the runways had to be double decked to protect them.

Grad Krause gave a progress report on the booth sales for the forthcoming Rotary Modern Living Show planned for late August.

John Polson presided at the meeting and announced the District Rotary Governor Lamont Heidinger of Edwardsville will be the guest speaker at the July 14 meeting.

Next Tuesday's meeting will have Cliff Behan as the featured speaker and his topic will be hockey. Arrangements were made by Edward Meng, program chairman.
